CHAMBER OF COMMERCE Rose Hill, NC

Helping us achieve the Chamber's goals

Each year millions of people create New Year's Resolutions. This year, the Rose Hill Chamber has decided to do the same.

These "resolutions" are for the Chamber's role in the community and local businesses.

This year, the Rose Hill Chamber of Commerce would like to make our "resolutions" known and as a community, we can accomplish our wish list for 2012!

- Create awareness of the Rose Hill Chamber to local businesses and the community
- Recognize businesses through multiple outlets such as: newspaper highlights, business socials, and quarterly newsletters
- Establish a Keep Rose Hill Beautiful campaign establishing a business of the month and work on each business' outer appearance. Each year, this goal will continue to expand.

SPECIAL HIGHLIGHT

Rose Hill Chamber of Commerce
Featured Business

Largest furniture store in Duplin County!

Frederick's Furniture is now owned and operated by Jack Fredrick although it is more than furniture and flooring. Frederick's also offers wallpaper, appliances, accessories, and jewelry.

Opened by Jack's parents in 1952, Jack chose to be part of the family business so he could continue his parent's legacy.

Growing up in the family business, Jack holds fond memories. His favorite memory being "as a young boy, riding with dad on his collection route".

While the store holds close their biggest victory of turning 60 this year, there are challenges as well. Frederick's biggest challenge is "staying up-to-date on trends".

Frederick Furniture is a unique business filled with friendly service and better prices. We are honored to have Jack on the Rose Hill Chamber board of directors and Frederick's business home in Rose Hill.
